Dear Ms. Tran

It is with great pleasure that I write to congratulate you on your appointment to Executive Director of the Virginia Asian Chamber of Commerce. What an honor to be chosen to head such an illustrious organization.

Ms. Tran your many years' of experience working with economic development and your education in related fields more than qualifies you for the position you are undertaking. The Virginia Asian Chamber of Commerce is more than fortunate to have you join their organization and I know you will be positively affected by your work.

We wish you all the best as you take on this new endeavor. If I can ever be of assistance to you or your organization please do not hesitate to contact my office.

Best regards,
